1. Between 24 and 29 May, Neues Lager, west of Justerbog, was occupied by a high headquarters including four generals. Vehicles of the headquarters of the 3rd Guards Mechanized Army hauled considerable billeting equipment belonging to the headquarters' units and all divisions subordinate to this army to Neues Lager.
2. On 27 to 29 May, the evacuation of the southern section of Camp Zossen continued. Vehicles of the GOFG hauled billeting equipment to the south and to the Wuensdorf railroad station. On 30 May, a sedan and one truck carrying furniture of the GOFG unit from Potsdam were seen entering the southern section of Camp Zossen.
3. Between 26 and 30 May, soldiers belonging to the repair shop at the Panzertruppschule in Wuensdorf moved to Camp Zossen or to Kommendatura Zossen. On 28 May, shipments of furniture belonging to the GOFG unit were observed to be just moving into the camp. This movement continued on 30 May. Up to 28 May, vehicles of the 3rd Guards Mechanized Army hauled billeting equipment from the western section of the Panzertruppschule, while similar shipments of the GOFG arrived there on 28 May. During the night of 28 May, 34 T-34/85 tanks departed from the Panzertruppschule.
4. Loadings observed at Wildpark railroad station included:
 - a. 27-28 May: One train with billeting equipment, ammunition, spare parts, signal equipment, and vehicles of the GOFG.
 - b. 29 May: One train with troops wearing black-bordered black epaulets, billeting equipment, sedans of the GOFG, and material which had been hauled by trucks from the Ruinenberg Kaserne, south of Papellallee.
